

ADVANCE ON LA FERRE FROM TWO SIDES

TWENTY MILLION WOMEN TO JOIN THE INDUSTRIAL ARMY

They Are Wanted to Take the Places of Men in Fighting Lines and in Heavy War Work.

H. W. Lewis of the U. S. public service reserve has sent out bulletins calling for the organization of the women of the state into the industrial army. He says:

The new manpower bill has been signed by the president and notice has gone forward that on September 12, 1918, approximately 13,000,000 males between the ages of 18 and 45 inclusive will register for the purpose of being drafted into the military army. Out of this number only 2,500,000 men will be used on the fighting line, the balance, approximately 10,000,000 will be given a furlough in order that they may join the industrial army and engage in war work consequential to maintaining and equipping the military forces with the necessary prerequisites of war. This furlough will in all probability be for the duration of the war unless the conditions upon which the furlough was granted are abused by a refusal to do war work or quitting war work without leave of absence. In either case the industrial soldiers will be recalled, inducted into the military army and sent to the fighting line.

Men accepting war work under these provisions will be allowed civilian pay, at wages prevailing in the particular trade or industry they engage in.

From this proposed new industrial army of 10,000,000 must be deducted—for calculation purposes—those that are now engaged in war work together with those that will be excused on account of physical disability, an estimated difference of 50 per cent, leaving only 5,000,000 new war workers for the industrial army; whereas, it will require a minimum of 15,000,000 to maintain the 2,500,000 additional military force to be inducted into service through this draft—a shortage of manpower beyond the 10,000,000 mark. What is the answer?

Fifteen to 20 million women will be required to fill the shortage in war work and semi-essential industries vacated by men who have been inducted into either the military or industrial army.

Every able-bodied female, without encumbrances more vital to humanity than war work, should be inducted to take up war work according to their physical resources and educational qualifications. This can be accomplished only through organization. Are you willing to make a few personal sacrifices in assisting the government to organize in your community a branch of the women's working reserve corps? An early reply will be fully appreciated.

Our country needs them, 20,000,000 strong—our women have never yet failed us in any great crisis—they will not now. Women saved France, then England; they must be appealed to to save America. We are asking you to select a leader from among the women in your town, one who in your opinion is fitted to spread the gospel of our country's salvation among her sisters, one who commands the respect of and can exert appropriate influence among her sex sufficient to complete a working organization and submit her name for registrant officer for the women's working reserve on questionnaire No. 29 herewith enclosed, passing the completed questionnaire on to your community labor board for further approval.

1. To appoint from her sex a committee of five to assist her in the work, diversified as to both social and industrial standing in order that all classes may be represented on the committee, the registrant officer to be chairman of said committee.

2. To create widespread publicity throughout the community by inducing the local papers to publish the bulletins sent out by the state office, and such local matter pertaining to organization as the committee desires to make public.

3. To organize mass meetings where speakers of both sexes can make a patriotic appeal to the women to stand by our boys on the fighting line by joining the industrial army.

4. To request churches of every denomination to make appeals from the pulpit for an increase of civilian war workers, soliciting co-operation of all available working forces in this crisis.

5. To induce women who can not leave to take the places at home of men engaged in non-war work so that the men may be released and utilized in war work suited to their capabilities.

In the future public opinion should and will brand as slackers men who insist on doing non-essential work while the country is in need of their services.

6. By survey, be prepared to en-

YOUNG MEN ORDER DEPRIVES BOYS OF COLLEGE TRAINING

Those Without High School Education Seemingly Will Not be Admitted.

Boys without high school education that would entitle them to admission to A. and M. and other colleges where students training corps are to be organized, will not be admitted, according to reports reaching Bryan today. A large number of boys with only grammar school education have applied to the college and been tentatively admitted, but orders from the war department have been received. This is probably due to the change in policy, announced yesterday by Provost Marshal General Crowder, wherein he states that the younger men within the draft ages will be selected first for army service.

Pointing out that in classifying men above the ages of 31 the army draft would be "attacking the country's economic life and entering an unexplored field," General Crowder in a public statement to all employers and industrial representatives besought their aid in applying the plan of industrial deferments so "that the maintenance of the military establishment or of the national interest during the emergency" may not be interfered with.

Before issuing his appeal General Crowder had again pointed out that on estimates of experts the war department could expect to draw from the classes above 31 only 601,000 men physically fit for military service and not entitled to deferred classification on the grounds of dependency or occupation.

He also said that men of 19 and 20 called were entitled to admission to the students training corps at the 400 secondary schools with which the war department has made contracts, but added that this corps would number 150,000 men, while over three million youths below 21 will register Thursday.

Methods of selecting these to be inducted into military service and educational training camps, he said, were the concern of other branches of the administration.

The order has had the effect of upsetting the plans of a large number of young men, many of whom have already arrived at the college under the assurance that they would be admitted. These are now seeking admission to Allen academy, which has not the barracks facilities for handling them.

BIZZELL IS CORRESPONDENT TO FORWARD ACQUAINTANCE AMONG NATION NEIGHBORS.

Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of A. and M. college, has been named a correspondent of the committee for promoting an intellectual entente among the allied and friendly countries by the sub-committee on relations with America. The committee is formed of a number of prominent British scholars and the object of its work is to bring about the largest possible co-operation among the allied countries in all the higher branches of knowledge and thought. The committee proposes to encourage the writing of books and magazine articles calculated to make each country better known and understood in all the others.

In this connection the committee announces that an American history for English readers is now being prepared and that lecturers and addresses are being delivered throughout England on the entry of the United States into the war.

He was riding his bicycle on the wrong side of the road on College street about Twenty-eighth, when, in an effort to avoid an auto truck and automobile he seems to have become confused and was run down by the truck. He was rolled and tumbled but miraculously missed serious injury, his lip and parts of his body being cut and bruised. He was taken to Dr. P. M. Rayson who gave him attention and he left in the care of companions of the company.

THREE TERMS INSTEAD OF TWO AT COLLEGE AS A WAR MEASURE

Acting under orders of the educational director of the committee on education and training activities of the war department, the school year which opens September 18, will be divided into three periods. The first period will end December 21, the second will begin December 30, and end March 22, and the third will begin March 31 and end June 21.

In compliance with the order of the war department for revised curriculum to meet the special needs of the members of the students' army training corps, a special committee on revision was named at a meeting of the faculty Sunday afternoon. This committee includes the administrative council, composed of the president of the college and the four deans, and Dr. C. P. Fountain and Dr. J. O. Morgan.

Instructions from the educational director announce that the average number of hours per week will be as follows:

Military subjects, including practical and theoretical instruction, and military training 11 hours; allied subjects, including lectures, recitations, laboratory instruction and the necessary preparation therefor, 42 hours. Each hour of lecture or recitation will ordinarily require two hours of supervised study. This is for the average student, and it is possible that the number of hours given to military instruction will be reduced for students pursuing technical courses, such as chemistry, medicine, engineering and ordnance work, though these students will not be given less than six hours of military instruction per week, and the technical students will be required to make up the number of hours reduced from their military course in their other studies.

The allied subjects will ordinarily be chosen from the following list: English, French, German, mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology, geology, geography, topography and map making, meteorology, astronomy, hygiene, sanitation, descriptive geometry, mechanical and free hand drawing, surveying, economics, accounting, history, international law, military law and government. One additional subject may be offered under certain conditions but that subject must relate in some vital way to preparation for war service.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT OF THE BRYAN WEEKLY EAGLE

Real Americanization.

"Americanism" is much more a matter of the long future than it is of the past. Unless we shall plan to utilize to the fullest extent the contributions which each of us can make we shall fail in our obligations to that future.

The peculiar potency of the opinions of our foreign born citizens at this time should not be overlooked. They have played an important part in the politics of Europe in the past. Every movement looking toward more democratic organization in the "old country" has counted upon the emigrants in the United States for moral and financial aid more than one European government has been convinced during the past 50 years that it must acquire a first hand knowledge of the questions that the oppressed of Europe are asking to have settled rightly now. For here among us, because of that very oppression, are the humble men and women who have themselves suffered from a denial of their people—here are also "intellectuals" who have had their part in leading the movement.

And it is the example of the United States in which the American of many generations and the Americans who came recently from all the nations of Europe are living and working out together the problems of our common life that makes the league of nations a possibility. And so while recognizing the difficulties which come with a complex population we must recognize that it offers us a peculiar opportunity.

Just before our entrance into the war there was a tendency on the part of some Americans to challenge the patriotism of all the foreign born among us. These people doubted whether, in the event of war, our foreign born population would be willing to give the full measure of their support to the United States rather than to the countries of their birth. They were not convinced by the fact that the foreigners whom they mistrusted had deliberately chosen the United States as the home of their children, and had invested in this country their little capital and their very life itself. This skeptical feeling was entertained by certain Americans who knew the foreign born only through their prejudices; many French and English honestly feared it; with many more Germans the wish was father to the same thought.

Fortunately, after one year of war, the answer to Germany's expectations and our own fears have been given. The names of the volunteers, the names on the lengthening casualty lists—Slavic, Greek, Italian, German, Scandinavian, Irish, along with English—are the answer to the undeserved charge that the foreign born among us were unwilling to accept their share of responsibility for our national decisions.

But as the foreign born have gathered from the industrial centers of the country in camps and cantonnements, there has been new evidence of our past indifference to the problems which come with a complex population. The most conspicuous of these has been the inability of a considerable number to speak English. Shocked to find that many who were to carry the colors to France could not speak our language, some Americans are ready to demand "an aggressive campaign of Americanization." They would like to summarily force all foreign born citizens to use the English language. Compulsion by law or social pressure would fail here just as it has failed in Alsace-Lorraine, Poland, in Bohemia and in Lithuania. Americanization means much more than learning to speak the English language under a compulsory school attendance law. While the barrier of language must be removed, it can never be successfully done by autocratic and coercive methods.

The non-English speaking immigrant lives isolated and remote from the main current of American life, but a most important element in his isolation is the ignorance of the American who lives on Riverside Drive, of the history and struggle of the Slav, steel worker in Bethlehem or the Italian garment worker in New York.

The duty and the opportunity of the national government and of the local community to the admitted immigrant were and still are (1) to protect him against fraud and exploitation, so that such traditions as he cherished with regard to America might not be lost in his first contacts with us; (2) to give him an opportunity to learn the English language and secure such working knowledge of our laws and institutions as would enable him to join in the work of making the United States a really effective democracy; (3) to make such adjustments of our political and social machinery as the peculiar needs of the various elements in our complex population render necessary or desirable.

Reports by way of Rotterdam go to show that the German people are on the verge of another revolution, one of those periodical events that come with every setback of German arms. Doubtless the German people and the German soldiers are not as cheerful and happy as a boy at a Christmas tree, but as doubt is entertained relative to every utterance that has a German source, these reports of a stirring up of the people must be taken with much reservation.

The talk of a revolution emanating from Germany has been usually the result of the attitude of the United States as set forth in the utterances of President Wilson, who has segregated the German people from the imperial German government. It is presumed that the German masters, in permitting news of a possible revolution and at least of popular unrest, to get out hope thereby to appeal to the sympathies of the president and the people of the United States who will be led to take steps looking to a peace by negotiation under the supposition that we will be rendering the German people a real service. The direct and indirect appeals of the German masters in the London view indicate that there is revolution in the air in Germany, but we believe that if the British and the other allies sit tight and do not rock the boat they will find that back of these appeals is mostly buncombe. If they will maintain their tight hold on the rope and let Woodrow Wilson lead them, they will find that there will never be any peace conference, but instead the central powers will be forced to relinquish their misrule to the disposition of the allies, and that the people themselves will be given opportunity to decide what form of government they shall have and whom they will select to conduct it for them.

OURS BIGGEST ARMY. DESTROY TURKEY AND AUSTRIA, SAYS T. R.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Sept. 6.—America's fighting army in France next year must surpass in numbers either the French or British armies there, declared Theodore Roosevelt today. He insisted also that the Austrian and Turkish empires must both be broken up, all the subject peoples liberated, and the Turk must be driven from Europe.

These assertions were made by Colonel Roosevelt in an address he delivered as a part of the exercises held in City Hall in celebration of Lafayette day, the anniversary of Lafayette's birth.

Referring to France's services to America in the revolution, Colonel Roosevelt declared that in the present war, France, England, Italy and the other allies had rendered similar services. The Belgians and the Serbians, he said, had been fighting for America when they fought for themselves.

"Our army on the other side is now repaying part of our debt," continued Colonel Roosevelt, "and next year we have every reason to hope and we must insist that the fighting army in France from the United States shall surpass in numbers the fighting army in France of either France or England. It is time, and it has long been time, for America to bear her full share of the common burden."

Full reparation for the awful cost of life and treasure which Germany has inflicted on the world must be guaranteed by the peace the allies win, he demanded.

"Serbia and Rumania must have restored to them what Bulgaria has taken from them," he continued.

"The Austrian and Turkish empires must both be broken up, all the subject peoples liberated, and the Turk driven from Europe. We do not intend that German or Magyar shall be oppressed by others, but neither do we intend that they shall oppress and dominate others."

"France must receive back Alsace and Lorraine."

"Belgium must be restored and indemnified."

"Italian Austria must be restored to Italy and Rumanian Hungary to Rumania."

"The heroic Czech-Slovaks must be made into an independent commonwealth."

"The southern Slavs must be united in a great Jugoslav commonwealth."

"Poland, as a genuinely independent commonwealth, must receive back German and Prussian Poland, as well as Russian Poland, and have her coast line on the Baltic."

"Lithuania, Livonia and Finland must be guaranteed their freedom and no part of the ancient empire of Russia left under the German yoke."

"Northern Schleswig should go back to the Danes."

"Britain and Japan should keep the colonies they have conquered."

"Armenia must be freed, Palestine made a Jewish state and the Syrian Christians liberated."

Insisting that the United States must always be ready to defend themselves, Colonel Roosevelt said:

"Any league of nations would have to depend for its success upon the cohesion of the nine nations which are actually or potentially the most powerful military nations; and these nine nations include Germany, Austria, Turkey and Russia. The first three have recently and repeatedly violated and are now actively and continuously violating not only every treaty but every rule of civilized warfare and of international good faith. During the last year Russia under the domination of the bolsheviks has betrayed her allies, has become the tool of the German autocracy."

"What earthly use is it to pretend that the safety of the world would be secured by a league in which these four nations would be among the nine leading partners? Long years must pass before we can again trust any promises these four nations make. Any treaty of any kind or sort which we make with them will be worthless unless our own prepared strength renders it unsafe to break it."

DIED AT 103 YEARS: LIVED HERE SINCE MEXICAN WAR.

Jesus Rezes, age 103 years, a familiar Mexican character about the city for a number of years, died in this city Sunday. "Pap," as he was known to numerous citizens, was born in Mexico and came to Texas after the war between Mexico and Texas and remembered distinctly the day Santa Anna and his army moved into Texas. For the last few years of his life he has been living on the farm of Nick Lobello near this city. Rezes was always of a kind disposition, willing in all times to assist his friends when in need. His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery Sunday afternoon.

SOME FINE COTTON. J. R. Tatman brought to The Eagle office a stalk of cotton from his place near Dinkins which County Agent Beason pronounced as something excellent. Mr. Tatman says the stalk is typical of the field. It is perhaps 30 inches high, contains 13 limbs and on every limb is open cotton. The number of bolls to the limbs varies from two to four and all seem to have opened simultaneously, giving the stalk a Christmas tree appearance. Mr. Tatman says the cotton is grown from seed carefully selected from the stalks as they grow in the field.

MILNER IS MENTIONED BY PATULLO IN BATTLE DESCRIPTION ARTICLE

In the issue of the Saturday Evening Post of August 31 an article by George Patullo entitled "Hellwood," the soldiers' name for Belleau wood, in which references are made to Lieut. D. B. Milner, son of former President Milner of A. and M. college, and a young man well known in Bryan. Mr. Patullo is now in Dallas, taking a rest from the strenuous work as correspondent in the fighting lines on the western front, but expects to return in September.

The first reference to Lieutenant Milner is contained in the following anecdote:

"Perhaps I can not do better, to convey an idea of Belleau and Buresches, than recite a few of the individual acts of heroism. They are picked at random. It would take too long to narrate a tenth of those reported officially; scores of soldiers performed feats that would have inspired sagas to their glory when the world was younger. You have only to read the cold, bald facts of the citations to wonder at human courage, to grow proud of the country that produced such men. There must be something in the air of America that stimulates to heights, for among the names are those of almost every nationality in Europe.

Take the case of Pvt. Walter Cook, who hails from Scranton, Penn. Cook is a big, two-fisted 190-pounder, who was a sergeant before he went into this fight, and is a sergeant again. But he went in as a private, having been "busted" for some minor offense. That not infrequently happens in this man's army, or I would not refer to it. Well, Cook is one of the crack shots of the leatherneck brigade, and during the preliminary actions was credited with picking off 21 boches with his rifle, one of them at 1200 yards.

"They say he sees red in battle. At any rate he was foremost in the charge on the Bois de Belleau. His comrades assert that he bayoneted 16 of the enemy. As for Cook, he says nothing; but he's a sergeant again.

Between him and Lieut. D. B. Milner has sprung up a deep friendship. The latter became the only officer left in his company, the others having been wounded. But that didn't daunt him a moment. He took command and carried on the attack, attaining all objectives.

"As his company occupied a critical position with relation to the whole, the achievement proved of the utmost importance.

"But here is the nub of the matter. Walter Cook, sometime sergeant, but busted, jumped in as second in command. The big fellow seemed in his element where the trouble was hottest. He helped Lieutenant Milner reorganize the company, and he led half of it; so they have recommended Sergeant Cook for a medal of honor."

The second reference is in this account:

"I know of only one instance of a boche standing up to the bayonet. Nearly all of them broke and fled at the first sight of the steel. But there was one who was made of sterner stuff. Lieut. D. B. Milner witnessed the encounter.

"A leatherneck rushed at a German with the bayonet and the latter stood his ground. For a few minutes the two men fought desperately, straining every muscle. Milner says he could see the veins stand out on their necks. The American tried several thrusts; they were parried; he lunged and missed. Then, impatient of the delay he abruptly shifted and swung the butt, crushing his adversary's skull.

"It took some tall fighting but they swept the enemy from Bois de Belleau. Belleau means 'beautiful water.' But the men of the division have another name for the place. To them it will always be Hellwood."

AMERICANS IN RUSSIA COMPLETELY SURROUNDED FOUGHT THEIR WAY OUT

(By Associated Press)
Archangel, Sept. 9.—A detachment of American Bluejackets was among the Entente Allied forces fighting recently in the vicinity of Ouberskaya, which resulted in the capture of the town. The Americans successfully extricated themselves from a dangerous predicament when surrounded by enemy.

The Americans were part of the expedition which approached the town from the rear some time in front of other forces moving in another direction. Completely surrounded, the Americans fought their way through but found themselves imbedded in deep swamps through which they struggled for more than two days.

SCHOOL WORK TO AID IN WINNING WAR, IS INSTITUTE SLOGAN

While some attention will be given to the routine problems of the school room in the joint teachers' institute for Brazos, Grimes, Burleson and Madison counties, which convened at A. and M. college this morning, the 300 teachers there will give first consideration to means by which they can make their efforts count for most in winning the war.

In the first formal address, delivered by President W. B. Bizzell of the college, he assured the teachers that upon their shoulders rested a peculiarly heavy responsibility in informing the pupils—and through these the heads of families—of the war aims of the government and the work which the various governmental agencies are doing in order that all the people will be able to give intelligent, liberal and enthusiastic support to all the war programs.

And new emphasis will be given to many subjects in the school room, Dr. Bizzell said. History, spelling and many other topics will be taught in a different manner and even the German language, despised by many people now, must be given a place in the educational program for its utilitarian even more than its cultural value. The winning of the war would be an easier task for the allies if every allied officer and a majority of the men knew the German language as many of the German officers and men know the English and French languages, Dr. Bizzell said.

Prof. J. Thomas Davis, superintendent of Grimes county and conductor of the joint institute, presided at the meeting and made numerous announcements for the benefit of the teachers, who are being accorded accommodations in the college dormitories and the mess hall.

The principal address this afternoon will be delivered by Prof. George A. Works of Cornell on "Changing Ideas in Education," while from 8 to 9 o'clock tonight Prof. J. F. Kimball, superintendent of the public schools of Dallas, will speak.

Free pictures will be exhibited at the air dome from 9 to 10 o'clock tonight and the swimming pool of the Y. M. C. A. will be open to the visiting women from 4 to 6 o'clock p. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and to the visiting men at the same hours on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

PRICE OF COTTONSEED AND PROFITS THEREON.

To the Editor of The Eagle:

I am not out to criticize unjustly anything pertaining to the government departments, but we are all entitled to our opinions and oftentimes different opinions correct errors.

Cottonseed is one of the leading food products, and the products, such as oil meal, flour, etc., have been based on cottonseed at about $70 per ton, and Food Administrator Peden makes the statement bearing this out. The prices were for seed in 1917 around $70 to $75 per ton and today the products are almost 33 1-2 per cent higher and seed has been selling from $50 to $65 per ton.

It is known that cottonseed oil mill men met behind closed doors, barring newspaper men, and established prices from time to time to suit themselves and as the farmers and ginners are compelled to sell their seed, they must dance to their music.

Mr. Peden, I think, wants to do the right thing but he is getting started too late. I notice in the paper they hope to get together by the middle of this month—September—and establish a price which from indications will be $70 per ton. By that time the bulk of the seed will be in the oil mill warehouses at an average of say $57.50 or $60 per ton. When the new price of $70 or $75 is set of course the products will conform to the high price of seed, and who is benefitted?

It is plain to be seen that the oil mill men have made millions to the loss of the farmers and ginners and to be paid by the consumers of all cottonseed products.

The ginner is limited to a differential of $3 per ton profit on each ton he handles and must not have more than 20 tons on hand at any time and must take out license and make reports; that keeps a ginner guessing whether he will be hung or imprisoned for life. So it makes little difference to him about the price, as he can only make $3 per ton, whether high or low. So it all reverts to the farmer.

The ginner is compelled to pay back to anyone he buys seed from if he makes more than $3 per ton. Now, why wouldn't it be fair to require the oil mills to do the same thing? The farmer is the fellow that holds the bag, for he sells his seed as fast as cotton is ginned, say at $50 per ton and then when he buys the meal, flour and other products, pays for it on the basis of $70 or $75 per ton. But some may say that the farmer has no kick, he is getting his. True, he is getting good prices but isn't it due him as the producer? He is willing to allow the other fellow a good margin for handling his product but when he pays $50 per ton for picking this seed and gets $50, he has $20 clear and when Mr. Oil Mill Man buys for $50 and sells on a basis of $70 he makes $20, so Mr. Farmer does the work, runs all the chances and halves it up with him. Pretty good rental, isn't it?

To establish right and justice to all is why we are fighting the Kaiser, so let's get together and get right at home.

J. H. CLARK,
Brazos Farmer.

LIKE AN ELECTRIC
BUTTON ON TOES.

Tells Why a Corn Is So Painful and Says Cutting Makes Them Grow.

Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp roots down upon a sensitive nerve and you get a shock of pain.

Instead of trimming your corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of freezezone. This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn stops the soreness instantly, and soon the corn shrivels up so it lifts right out, root and all, without pain. This drug freezezone is harmless and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin.

BRAZOS BOARD LISTS INDUSTRIES THAT ARE NOT WAR ESSENTIAL

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 31, 1918.—Community Labor Boards, U. S. Public Service Reserve, State of Texas: The organization of community labor boards has been completed and a full auxiliary organization of enrollment officers should have been established by the time this letter reaches you. Each community labor board should now become active in the work and render efficient service to the government and to the industrial army they represent.

One of the most important duties of the board is to convene and establish which industries in their district are to be held as non-war industries. After the board has determined this issue a copy of their resolutions should be spread upon the minutes, a copy furnished this office and several copies furnished the newspapers in their district for publicity.

The department of labor authorizes the following:

The community labor board of the United States employment service of the District of Columbia, acting in conformity with the declaration of the labor recruiting program as prescribed by the department of labor, declares as non-essential or non-war work the unskilled labor employed in the industries mentioned below in which male employees are now working and on whom a formal notice will be served, if that course is necessary. The voluntary release of these men by their employers so that they may be transferred to war work is expected without such formal notice from this board.

Men who are released from the various non-essential industries, as determined by this board, may apply at the office of the United States employment service, where they will be given employment in essential war work.

The men at this time to be released by establishments determined by this board to be non-essential are the laborers, porters, janitors and other unskilled workers. This board has determined the following industries to be engaged in non-essential war work:

Auto industry accessories, drivers of pleasure cars, cleaning, repairing and delivery of same; auto trucks engaged in work other than fuel or government work; teaming, other than delivery of products for war work; candy manufacturing, cigars and tobacco; confectioners and delicatessen establishments; builders and contractors not engaged in the erection of structures for war work; bath and barber shop attendants; mercantile stores; fruit stands; bowling alleys, billiard and pool rooms; window cleaners; soft drink establishments; clubs; florists; sight seeing cars; cleaners and dyers; bottlers and bottle supplies; dancing academies; livery and sales stables; peanut vendors and establishments; shoe shining shops; junk dealers; soda fountain supplies.

It may be necessary for the board to add to this list from time to time. The following is the general policy of the department of labor, under which the Washington board is operating:

"For the purposes of the centralizing war labor recruiting program 'war work' means—

"1. The manufacture of products or the erection of structures directly or indirectly supplied to some department of the government for use in connection with the war. Indirectly supplied includes goods delivered under sub-contracts to government contractors.

"2. Coal mining is wholly war work.

"3. Railroads and farms are engaged in war work to the extent that under the program they are protected from all recruiting by other industries. "The making of products which may ultimately be used for war purposes but which are not to be delivered either directly to the government or to some contractor who uses them in producing or as a part of products to be delivered to the government, is not considered war work."

Effective at once the above is adopted for Brazos county, Texas.

WHOLESALE SUPPLY OF WOOD ASSURED FOR PEOPLE OF BRYAN

J. W. Barton has contracted with two Mexican employers of labor to cut each 1000 cords of wood for the purpose of supplying the people of Bryan with fuel during the winter months. He expects to continue cutting wood until the land is cleared, when he will put it in cultivation. Mr. Barton has purchased 200 acres of land at Minter Springs near Wellborn and close to a switch track on the International and Great Northern railroad. He will ship wood in in car load lots and sell it in Bryan in those quantities or in cord lots, giving 123 cubic feet to the cord, instead of the "short cord" that has been customary here. His contract calls for four-foot wood. He says the timber on this land is a young post oak and hickory, there being no old, pithy wood in it. He expects to have his two gangs of Mexicans at work immediately and begin delivering wood in Bryan in the next couple of weeks.

PERFECTING PLANS OF NEXT LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE IN BRAZOS

Judge J. T. Maloney, as county chairman of the liberty loans, attended a district meeting with J. W. Hoopes in Houston yesterday to confer with the reserve bank officials and other county chairmen relative to the fourth liberty loan drive which is to start September 28. This loan is to be for $6,000,000,000. The pro rata of the several states and districts have not been fixed, and it is thought they will possibly not be announced until after the treasury department shall have received reports on the condition of national banks at the close of business August 31. In reference to the suggestion that the pro rata for Texas and the southwest be reduced because of the drought that has so completely put a large number of farmers and business men out of the running for the time being, Judge Maloney said that the chairman at the conference did not take to the suggestion, holding that the more prosperous sections of Texas would absorb the bonds that would normally be sold in what are now the drought stricken regions. The condition of each community as revealed by the bank reports will possibly help to determine how much may be expected from the several counties, and serve as a basis for the apportionment of the pro rata.

As far as Brazos county is concerned, Judge Maloney said, sales here would certainly be expected to the amount of $400,000, as the apportionment in the $3,000,000,000 loan was about half that. "I told them Brazos county would do its part," he said. "I told them the people of Brazos county are aroused and willing to make any sacrifices, for many of our boys are in France and elsewhere among the fighting forces offering their lives for the supreme sacrifice, and our people are willing to stand behind them."

BOMB EXPLOSION IN CHICAGO KILLS 4, WOUNDS 75

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Four persons were killed and more than 75 others injured by the explosion of a bomb in the crowded entrance to the federal building at 3:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The explosion, the force of which was so great that it not only wrecked the entrance of the building but shattered every window on the first three floors of two buildings across the street, was attributed to the I. W. W. by Philip J. Barry, in charge of the local offices of the department of justice.

The list of dead follows: William R. Wheeler, a mail clerk. J. B. Ladd, a sailor from the Great Lakes naval training station, whose home was in Salina, Kan.

E. R. Kolkov, a postal clerk. Miss Helen Michike of Chicago. Raids on two headquarters of the I. W. W. within 15 minutes after the explosion resulted in the arrest of nine men. Several more were taken into custody within the federal building and a woman, whose name was suppressed, was arrested in a nearby building. Last night more than 1500 government agents and the entire city police force was seeking the perpetrators of the outrage.

ALL IN READINESS FOR REGISTERING 2779 MEN ON THURSDAY

A large quantity of mail was received by the local exemption board this morning preparatory to the registration of Brazos county citizens Thursday for war service. The registration cards and the identification cards were received several days ago. This morning the mail brought the supply of questionnaires, covers and large envelopes.

All who are 18 years of age and under 46 are to register between 7 o'clock in the morning and 9 o'clock at night in the several voting precincts of the county. It is estimated by the government that there are 2779 men of these ages who will register Thursday in this county, and to take care of them within the prescribed hour a registrar has been named for each voting precinct. These were called together in conference Saturday and every one responded. Instructions were given them and all questions asked, so that it is likely that few errors will creep in. However, they will be in town tomorrow for their supplies and further instructions will be given them. They are to report to the exemption board Friday the results of the registration in the several precincts, bringing in the cards as filled out and signed up.

The board has begun the work of classifying the registrants of August 24 and put 18 of them in class 1 at the first session. Most of the boys voluntarily waived their rights to deferred classification.

On the charge of technical desertion two Bryan negroes were sent to Waco Saturday night for detention and disposal. They are Walter Harris, who was of the 1918 class, and Basset Smith. Both were lying around town and did not go to the postoffice to receive their notices, or make any effort to ascertain if they were wanted. They made the claim that they had never received their notices, but in refutation of that Clerk Griffin went to the postoffice and upon inquiry found that the letter had not been called for. The theory was that they could get out of serving if they could make the excuse that they did not receive their notices.

REGISTRATION AT COLLEGE.

All men of the college precinct who are subject to registration for military service under the new draft law will register Thursday in the lobby of the first floor of the main building at A. and M. college. A. J. Tabor, Jr., chairman of registration for that precinct, has secured the use of that floor with plenty of chairs and tables and helpers and he expects to be able to handle all registrants without delay or inconvenience to the men.

HOME OF REV. HALL ON EAST SIDE BURNS

The home of Rev. J. C. Hall, beyond the city limits on the east side, was entirely consumed by fire about 1 o'clock this morning with a complete loss totaling probably around $5000, partly covered by insurance.

Mrs. Hall is in Houston, where she went to be with a sick sister and was herself taken sick, and Mr. Hall was living alone during her absence and "batching." He had been in the field attending to his crops and returned to the house to start his dinner, building a fire in the kitchen stove with which to do it. While he was thus employed the ceiling of the kitchen fell on him and the stove, singeing his hair badly. By that circumstance, it is supposed the fire caught in the attic above the kitchen from a defect in the flue. His life being thus threatened he made haste to get away and was unable to save anything. The fire department was called but as the house was beyond the reach of any water plugs nothing but a bucket brigade could do any good, and that was of little effect as most of the men of the neighborhood were not at home at that hour of the day.

The house was valued at about $7500 and the contents at $1000. Mr. Hall stated this morning that he had insurance on the house. John A. Moore carried $2500 insurance on the house and $1500 on the furniture.

Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before It Salivates You! It's Horrible.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.—Adv.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or expel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 6c per bottle.

TWO THOUSAND BOYS EXPECTED AT A. AND M. COMING SESSION

So numerous are the inquiries that are pouring into the office of Registrar Charles E. Friley at A. and M. college from young men anxious to enter the students army training corps that will be established there soon, that he has been compelled to revise his estimates on the possible attendance, his prediction now being that 2000 students may enroll this year.

While this number is larger than the college is capable of accommodating with its usual facilities, extra barracks, tents and other housing facilities are being rapidly provided, while the addition to Shiba mess hall, capable of accommodating 1000 additional men, will make possible the feeding of the pupils without inconvenience.

The announcement is made by the authorities that no young man who is prepared to enter the college will be turned down for lack of accommodations, as extra provisions will be made for taking care of him. The next term will open September 18.

MUELLER IS IN FRANCE WITH INFANTRY REGIMENT.

President Bizzell of A. and M. college has received a message from Lieutenant Colonel C. H. Mueller, who was stationed at the college as commandant for two years, preceding the coming of Colonel C. J. Crane, stating that he is in France with the 322nd infantry. Colonel Mueller was only a captain at the time he was at College and his rapid rise since this country became involved in the war is very gratifying to his friends here.

SUPPLEMENTARY QUESTIONNAIRE MUST BE ADDED

Washington, Sept. 9.—A supplement to the questionnaire which men between 18 and 45 will be required to fill out after they register next Thursday has been ordered by the provost marshal general to cover information necessary for the granting of occupational exemptions under the broader provisions of the new manpower act.

The supplement will consist of a single leaf. It will be filled out by each registrant claiming exemption, exactly as the main questionnaire.

Regulations governing the application of the law have now been completed. The points chiefly disputed since the extension of the draft ages was proposed has been of classification of registrants, which was urged by a member of the government administration.

It was represented that certain individual enterprises and some industries ought to be exempted entirely from the draft. General Crowder and his staff have held that no general policy had been adopted and the regulations to be issued shortly provide that exemptions shall be granted only on evidence produced in individual cases. Boards must determine that in each case registrants engaged in an occupation or industries necessary to the war, and also that the individual involved is necessary to the enterprise. The ruling leaves shipyards as the only virtually exempted industry.

LEASE OF B. B. A. FOR ARMY PURPOSES HAS BEEN ARRANGED

Terms have been reached, as far as the authority of President W. B. Bizzell goes in the matter, for the leasing of B. B. A. buildings and grounds for the use of the war department in training soldiers at this camp. The local committee in whose hands authority to lease the property was placed, and Dr. Bizzell were brought together by the educational committee of the business club, A. M. Waldrop chairman, and it did not take long to reach an agreement that Dr. Bizzell could recommend. He of course will have to pass it on to the war department for final approval.

Primarily the buildings and campus would be used for training of about 200 band men but the rumor has become current in Bryan, upon what authority is not known, that barracks will be erected there and 1000 men stationed there.

Mr. Waldrop states that the work of his committee and that of the Woman's club in securing quarters in town for the civilian instructors who are to come here, is progressing nicely. The ladies, who are making a canvass of the city, have found a ready response and on the first day listed quarters for about 100 people. It is roughly estimated that 200 people will be brought here, including the 85 instructors of soldiers and 35 instructors of cadets and their families. The rental value of rooms, while not fixed by the committee in the strict sense of the word, has been figured out by the committee on something of a scientific basis, consideration being given to size, quality of furnishings, conveniences, proximity to town and the suburban and similar conditions. Very few, if any, objections have been made to the price suggestions of the committee and some who are offering their rooms purely from patriotic motives have made the prices very reasonable, practically covering the extra cost and a low price for the extra labor and inconvenience.

The rooms are being card indexed so that inquirers will be quickly supplied.

WILSON HOME BURNED WITH TOTAL LOSS OF HOUSE AND CONTENTS

The home of City Commissioner W. S. Wilson, Jr., on South College avenue was burned this morning shortly after 8 o'clock. Mrs. Wilson is in Austin with her son who is taking treatment for rabies at the Pasteur institute, and Mr. Wilson has been sleeping in the house, taking his meals at the home of Mrs. Elliot. He arose and dressed this morning, turning on the electric light to do so, fed the chickens from the back door and went to breakfast, after turning out the lights. He says he did not strike a match for any purpose while he was in the house. After breakfast he went on to his place of business and was waiting on a customer when he was informed by telephone that the house was afire.

Clarence Vick was among the first to discover smoke issuing in large volume from the rear of the building and he and Roy Vick and other neighbors rushed over to get out such things as they could. Clarence Vick broke open the inner kitchen door and the smoke and flames that burst through nearly prostrated him. The flames spread so rapidly that they were able to save only a couple of mattresses, a sewing machine and a few small articles. By the time the firemen arrived the house was beyond saving, so they devoted their immediate attention to saving the Robinson house next door.

The house was practically new, having been built within the past seven years. Mr. Wilson says he carried $3500 insurance on the house and $1000 on the furniture, clothing, etc. His total loss is probably around $5000.

He is of the opinion that a short circuit was created in the electrical wiring in some place in the building and the fire cause in that way.

BUTTER MAY GO TO 75c.

Houston, Sept. 9.—Seventy-five-cent butter is predicted for Houston before Christmas by some of the wholesale dealers. With the wholesale price of Texas creamery at 49c to 50c now, compelling retailers to ask 55c or more per pound, the 75c level, they say, is not far off. There is said to be a shortage of butter due to the drought in Texas and there is a largely increased demand from the army. These are the reasons for the forecast of 75c per pound.

U. S. ARMY SO BIG BROTHERS HAVE MISSED EACH OTHER.

On August 13 from somewhere in France Napoleon Saladin wrote his father, J. M. Saladin, here, asking for the address of his brother, Ross. On August 18 on the letterhead of the American Red Cross, Ross Saladin writes from a hospital asking for the address of Napoleon. In the million and a half men who have been transported to France the two brothers have not as yet run across one another and apparently are not aware that both are in France. Ross was wounded but he says it does not amount to much and he is about to leave the hospital. Napoleon tells his father, "I want to tell you, if the Red Cross happens to ask for anything, give it to them, for they are making use of it."

Napoleon is with the 102nd ammunition train and Ross with the 26th infantry.

WHY DO ALL DOCTORS PRESCRIBE CALOMEL?

Of all the medicines in the world, doctors prescribe calomel most often and depend upon it most universally. There must be a good and sufficient reason—what is it?

If you will study the doctors' books you will find that the medical authorities prescribe calomel for almost every disease. The reason is that calomel is the greatest and only thorough system-purifier. It makes the liver active, drives out the poisons from the stomach, bowels and kidneys and thereby purifies the blood. Calomel puts the entire system in the most favorable condition for nature to exercise her recuperative power. Your doctor will tell you that drugs merely assist nature. That is why he prescribes calomel so often.

The new kind of calomel, called "Calotabs," is refined and purified from all of the nauseating and dangerous qualities of the old style calomel and is rapidly taking its place, for it is more effective than the old style calomel and is rapidly taking its place, for it is more effective than the old style calomel as a liver-cleanser and system-purifier. One Calotab at bedtime, with a swallow of water—that's all. No nausea, nor the slightest unpleasantness. Next morning you awake feeling fine—with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—fruits, acids or anything. No restrictions of habit or diet.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price 35 cents. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists everywhere. Your money back if you are not delighted.

THIS MAN SAYS HIS WIFE WEIGHED ONLY SEVENTY-SIX POUNDS

After Suffering Twenty-Five Years She Takes Tanlac and Gains Twenty-Nine Pounds—Not Like Same Person.

"My wife has gained 29 pounds and now we just set back and talk about the happy days Tanlac has brought us," writes L. A. Beatty of Selmer, Tenn., in a letter dated July 18, to the Tanlac offices.

"I just want to say that I have no doubt that Tanlac has saved my wife's life," his letter continues, "and now the future looks bright as silver dollars to us. Twenty-five years ago she was given up to die and I have been told every year since that time that she couldn't live. I have tried everything—traveled all over the country with her—spent great sums of money, but nothing did her any good. She had run down to where she weighed only 76 pounds.

"I saw Tanlac advertised, bought it for her and she soon commenced to pick up, and now she weighs 105 pounds—has actually gained 29 pounds. I wish you could have seen her before she took Tanlac and then see her now, you wouldn't take her for the same person. Before she couldn't do anything, but now she does all her housework and tends to her flowers and a yard full of chickens besides.

"I can prove what I say is true by my county officials and lots of other good people. You may know it makes me feel good to see my wife well and enjoying life after suffering for years and I honestly believe that Tanlac is the best medicine on earth. I'm just a walking, talking booster for Tanlac because of what it has done for us and I have been the cause of many others taking it. Later on I may tell you how I happened to pass an old friend's house and recommend it to him. I'm up, but he's O. K. today. This can be proven too. Well, I could write columns and then not tell half. But let me say again I believe Tanlac is the grandest medicine on earth and I will answer anybody's letter and tell them just what I have written you."

Tanlac is sold in Bryan by N. A. Stewart.

STREET NAMES CHANGED.

Beaumont, Sept. 5.—Acting upon petition of the realty company owning the property along Bismarck and Berlin streets, the city council today changed the names to Wilson and Pershing. While the change would have been made for patriotic reasons anyway, it is said that prospective purchasers often turned away, declaring they had rather rent on a good American street than to own a home on a German-named thoroughfare.

FIRST BAPTISTS CALL DR. HELD AS PASTOR AND HE ACCEPTED

Rev. Dr. John Held of Stamford has been called as pastor of the First Baptist church and accepted.

Dr. Held was here some weeks ago and preached to the congregation. He was invited to return yesterday and preached two sermons, the excellency of which is said to have been superior to the ones previously delivered.

The deacons of the church and the finance committee met at 3 o'clock in the afternoon to consider the matter of extending him a call and arranging the finances. A satisfactory arrangement was perfected and after the night services a short conference by the congregation was held at which the report of the deacons and finance committee was submitted. Dr. Held not being present at this meeting, the congregation voted to extend him a call and when he was notified to return to the conference he was informed of the call, which he accepted in a talk which is said to have been even more excellent than his sermons.

Dr. Held announced that he would assume his pastorate here on Wednesday, September 18, and reside at the Wednesday night prayer meeting. He is a man of about 49 years, a graduate of Baylor university in the same class with Dr. W. B. Bizzell and Judge W. C. Davis and he received his degree of doctor of divinity at the Louisville seminary. He has a considerable family, some of them at home and others separated from him in various activities.

COLLISION ON WELLBORN ROAD.

A rapidly running auto bound south collided Friday night, just after dark, with the auto of Mrs. J. L. Powers and a lady companion who were driving to Bryan on the highway just this side of Wellborn. Mrs. Powers took to the side of the road to make way for the speedsters but they cut in behind her car too closely and after running a mile the rear wheel gave down. The speedsters did not stop to ascertain if any damage had been done. The ladies were picked up by an auto sent out from town.
